

Aron Broker Financial Rules

Aron Broker reserves the right to change roles on behalf of clients at any time and without notice, and clients are obliged to read the updated roles on the website.

1. If the company notices misuse of offers, deposit, or withdrawal options, it reserves the right to block the client's account and compensate the loss with the client's balance.
2. The client must notify customer support of any malfunction in the broker's services, including deposit, withdrawal, exchange, and other offers and services.

Deposit Rules

1. The client must use his account to deposit and withdraw, and in terms of violation, the company reserves the right to block the client's account.

3.1. In the case of depositing using a third party's account, the deposit cannot be registered in the applicant's account. The company has the right to carry out the necessary checks and, if possible, return the amount to the source account after deducting 4% of the fee over the platform fee.

3.2. The company is not responsible for third-party deposits and withdrawals and does not guarantee these types of transactions.

3.3. Clients are obliged to ensure the authenticity and up-to-dateness of address or bank account number before depositing in all platforms. In case of using a wrong or outdated address or account number for a deposit, the asset may no longer be in your access and the broker cannot be held responsible in such cases.

Cashback (Only in the Grace time)

1. Cashback is a removable cash prize for the broker's traders. Any misuse is considered a violation, and the broker reserves the right not to pay cash back to a suspicious account.

4.1. If it is confirmed that a client carried out a deposit with abusive intentions, the loss will be compensated with the client's balance. There will be penalties for the delinquent, and he will face permanent or temporary deprivation, and repeat violations will result in laying off the client.

Some violations are as follows, and the broker also considers other factors.

4.2. The client is obliged to trade with the deposit he received cash back for in trades without leverage. (In case of using leverage, the client must use 25% of the deposited amount) and trading with a part of any of the deposited amount will be faced with Paragraph 1 of this clause.
